What is your conscious power? April 29th, we posed this question at our all day training event, where we hosted 29 child care providers who opened up about their everyday realities in the field of early care. The stories shared and the questions asked, confirmed that everyone has their fair share of struggles and upsets in both their professional and personal lives. The strategies presented on will help anyone get through difficult situations with more confidence and ease.

The 7 Powers for Conscious Adults help increase your ability to self-regulate and stay in a mindset that will keep you focused on a healthy solution. An adults' ability to apply these powers will decrease the likelihood of impulsive tendencies and increase the possibility of more positive outcomes.

Child Care Aware® of Steuben and Schuyler would like to thank all who attended “Continuing the Journey.” With your openness to share and to listen, the event was a huge success!
