

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A FREE COMMUNITY PRESENTATION

Brought to you by:

PREVENTING YOUTH SUBSTANCE USE: WHAT CAN WE DO TO STOP RUNNING SCARED? BEGINNING TO THINK ABOUT A NEW APPROACH

Monday, April 16, 2018
6:00pm-7:30pm
Corning-Painted Post High School Auditorium
This is a free community presentation

FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS (1.5 contact hours). Family Service Society, Inc. is approved to provide continuing education for NYS Licensed Social Workers, Mental Health Counselors, Creative Arts Therapists, Marriage and Family Therapists, and NBCC. Family Service Society is also a NYS OASAS-approved education and training provider. (Please visit the CE table at the event to register for continuing education credit)

This community presentation is brought to you by Family Service Society, Inc.
& Care Compass Network. For more information, please call
Family Service Society, Inc. at 962-3148

Associate Sponsors:

PRESENTER

Daniel B. Jacobs, Ed.M., M.B.A., Psy.D. is an Assistant Professor at William James College in Massachusetts where he teaches courses focused on the needs of individuals and families impaired by mental health and substance use concerns. Dr. Jacobs has a private counseling practice in Lexington, MA, and he also consults and trains nationally with agencies, schools, and residential programs.

