- “Frustration; continuing circle of going no-where.”
- “All of the experiences brought an awareness to the situations many people face. I did not realize how mean others treat people based on social status.”
- “Stressful making all the ends meet. It was hard to decide what to spend the little money we had on. Also it was difficult not to include the children on decisions that had to be made. We tried to exclude them so they didn't need to worry but it was impossible.”
