

Head Start Classroom Substitutes – Pro Action’s Head Start Program is seeking applicants for Classroom Substitute Staff at our classroom location in the Hornell and Canisteo-Greenwood School Districts.

The advantages of being a classroom substitute include:

- Making a difference: Your presence in the classroom can have a positive impact on young children’s preschool experience. You have the opportunity to be another caring presence in the classroom, providing positive adult interaction for the children.
- Learn New Skills: Gain valuable experience in the classroom while you work as part of a team with Teaching Staff. Learn effective methods for conducting classroom and small group activities and about Head Start and NYS Child Day Care Regulations.
- Flexibility: Classroom Substitutes have the flexibility of working on an on-call basis. You don’t have to have full-time availability to be part of our team. Head Start/UPK Classroom Substitutes are off during the summer and other school district breaks.

The Classroom Substitute requires a High School diploma and experience with young children. Successful applicants must be able to pass background checks.
