Agency Presentation:

Council on Alcoholism and Addictions of the Finger Lakes

The Council on Alcoholism and Addictions of the Finger Lakes serves Yates, Ontario, Seneca, Wayne, and Schuyler counties. Idelle Dillon is the Yates County educator providing “Too Good for Drugs” and “Too Good for Violence” Programs in the Yates County Schools. As well as The Alcohol & Drug Prevention Education Program with Youth, one example is working with students who are referred by Keuka College who have been found drinking underage or using substances. Mike Ballard also works with Yates County by heading the Yates County Substance Abuse Coalition, focusing on the Opioid crisis in Yates County. If your agency is interested in being a part of the coalition, you can find them every 3rd Wednesday of the month at the Methodist Church at 3:30pm. Attached are Flyers explaining more of the services they provide to Yates County.

The Next meeting will be October 1st, 2019
in The Yates County Auditorium
