Dear Customer,

Welcome to our Congregate Meal Site and Home Delivered Meals Program. We are so glad to have you join us.

Steuben and Yates Congregate Meal Site and Home Delivered Meals are operated by Pro Action of Steuben & Yates, Inc., which is a nonprofit organization. The program is sponsored by the Steuben County Office for the Aging, the Yates County Office of the Aging, the New York State Office for the Aging and the Administration for Community Living.

The program is funded by customer contributions, donations from local businesses and service organizations, private donations, grants from the United Way, and the federal, state and local governments. No single source of funds is enough to keep the program operating. This partnership allows us to provide this service.

Through the provision of nutritionally balanced meals and nutrition education, the Pro Action Senior Nutrition Program provides support for seniors who wish to maintain independent living and a healthy life-style.

Customers may choose to receive Home Delivered Meals and/or dine at one of the program's Congregate Meal Sites conveniently located throughout Steuben County and in Yates County. The suggested voluntary customer contribution is $4.00 per meal; however, a suggested contribution level, equal to the actual cost of the meal is applicable for participants who self-disclose income that is at or above 185% of federal poverty level.

The Nutrition Program hopes to help you keep nutritionally healthy and able to remain in your home for as long as possible. We are very glad to assist you.

Sincerely,
Pro Action Nutrition Program Staff

This is a wonderful option if you are homebound, disabled, chronically ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or at nutritional risk. Home delivered meals may be available for those under age 60 who live with an eligible senior. Home delivered meals may be available for those who participate with a Medicaid managed long term care plan with appropriate authorization. If you do not meet these eligibility criteria, please call us at 607-776-4310 to ask about our self pay option.

7. How do I keep my meals safe?

Keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold except for short periods of time. If you prefer to eat your meal later in the day instead of when it is delivered, put the meal in the refrigerator as soon as it arrives at your home. Refrigerate all cold foods that you are saving to eat later. Refrigerate all leftovers immediately after you eat. If food is left at room temperature longer than 2 hours, throw it out. Frozen meals should be placed in your freezer as soon as they arrive. Meals should be heated directly from the freezer or thawed in the refrigerator before heating--do not leave food out on the counter to thaw. Leftovers from meals need to be used within 3 to 5 days or thrown out. Remove spoiled and over-age foods from the refrigerator regularly.

8. Do I have to be home to receive my meals?

Yes, as your meal cannot be left outside if you are not home. NO MEALS MAY BE LEFT IN COOLERS. If you are not going to be home for meal delivery due to doctor's appointment, etc., you need to call (607) 776-4310 for Steuben or (315) 536-6038 for Yates the day before to cancel your meal delivery.

9. What if I need a special diet?

Our menu has been developed to meet the needs of most individuals, including those with diabetes. The meals are prepared with low to moderate amounts of total fat, saturated fat, cholesterol, sugar and salt. Physician orders for diet changes, including diabetic, low sodium or other modifications are not needed. Menu item preferences and modified consistencies cannot be given consideration.

10. How much do the meals cost?

The approximate cost to prepare the meal is $13.75. We ask for a voluntary contribution of $4.00 per meal. For Medicaid managed long term care customers, no contribution is requested. For self-pay customers, the full cost of the meal is to be paid.

11. How do I make my contribution?

You will receive a monthly statement of services following the receipt of meals. You will receive a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience. We accept SNAP (food stamps), cash, or checks payable to Pro Action Senior Nutrition Program. You can also visit the Proactioninc.org website and click on SUPPORT US to make a contribution using a debit card, credit card or PayPal. All contributions are used to expand services and are kept confidential. No one will be denied services for the inability to contribute. For self-pay customers, we require the full cost of the meal to be paid prior to delivery of meals.
